

Internship Opportunity

Grant Thornton

Through past Ascham Parent / past Chair of the Ascham Council of Governors, Diane Grady, financial services firm Grant Thornton is offering a summer internship.

Grant Thornton's fundamental purpose is premised on a simple yet powerful principle: that every day, everyone can make a difference, assisting clients to achieve their growth aspirations. Grant Thornton unlocks the potential for growth wherever it operates.

Grant Thornton advocates for its clients on their growth journey, through the range of advisory services it provides, the diversity, curiosity and expertise of its people and the way in which it invests and shares in their aspirations.

Grant Thornton predominantly recruits its graduates through its vacation experience program so a successful internship could potentially fast-track an intern to a graduate offer.
