Reporting to: Head of Speech and Drama

Ascham values staff who demonstrate a positive and proactive approach to their work and have a willingness to participate in the life of the School. We look for vibrant, dedicated and capable staff who have initiative, empathy, a good sense of humour and a professional behaviour to achieve the School's objectives.

Why your role matters:

This position has primary responsibility for delivering high quality Speech and Drama lessons to students in small group and individual settings. The aim of the Speech and Drama Peripatetic is to help students develop confidence, eloquence of speech and to improve their performance and communication skills.

What you have to do to succeed:

- Plan and deliver effective individual and group lessons in Speech and Drama for students of the school.
- Ensure that all students are fully prepared for their graded examinations and that all requirements outlined in the syllabus are met
- Use a variety of learning aids, technology, materials and equipment to stimulate higher-level thinking
- Involve all students in the learning process and adjusts instruction according to the needs of the students
- Attend eisteddfods, concerts and soirees held by the Speech and Drama department, including those that are after-hours
- Write annual feedback reports for your students
- Maintain accurate attendance and lesson/student records
- Complete necessary documentation for students' concert/eisteddfod/examination entries and other administrative tasks as required by the department
- Take part in all required professional development and any other opportunities that may arise
- Proactively meet with Head of Speech and Drama/Speech and Drama Coordinator regularly to discuss student progress
- Follow department set curriculum
- Undertake any other responsibilities at the request of the Head of Speech and Drama
- Model and encourage behaviours that are consistent with the ethos of Ascham and the aims of the School
- Use professional judgement to solve problems or escalate issues when there are no clear methods or procedures in place for doing so
- Deliver specific objectives as agreed with the Head of Speech and Drama to achieve the values, goals and strategies of the School
- Ensure compliance with the School's Code of Conduct and all other internal policies and procedures

What do you need to succeed?

- Associate Diploma with Trinity College London or equivalent
- Experience with teaching the Trinity College London examination syllabus or equivalent
- Proven teaching or tutoring experience in a school setting
- Professional and organised approach
- Demonstrated competence with computer literacy skills including Microsoft Office
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and commitment to positive relationships and professional communications
- A valid Working with Children clearance
